Masters	Toowoomba	June 11th

- Hosting associations have agreed to send all results of the Coulter Shield to all other associations.
- Kim Rendell from Brisbane Hockey Association has developed a program to give live updates and record the results during Coulter shield tournaments. Link - qldhockey.info/sqzone
All associations shall be given access and a link to use this program.
The motion was moved that hosting associations should use this program.
Moved – Bev Nunan (Sunshine Coast) Seconded – Sam Spry (Ipswich) – carried
- The placement of invitational teams within the draw was discussed. It was clarified by Brisbane that the placement of invitational teams shall be decided on by the previous years results and if the invitational team did not previously compete, they shall be placed into the draw by were the hosting association deems acceptable.
- The Coulter Shield rule for teams not attending after registering a team was discussed and clarified. The subsequent fine of $200 for a team not attending and the fine of $50 for not providing an umpire shall be paid to the hosting association.
- Kim Rendell from Brisbane Hockey Association asked the meeting if any other associations had information on the history of the Coulter Shield that they could share it with him. Kim would like to add this information to his qldhockey.info/sqzone website.
- Mick Evans from Brisbane Hockey Association asked if the committee could consider representatives from all associations who are unable to attend the Coulter Shield meeting, would be able to attend the meeting via telephone/internet conferencing.
The meeting resolved that centres that were unable to attend in person would be able to participate via telephone or internet connection, as long as they gave sufficient notice for the facility to be available.
Moved – Mick Evans (Brisbane Hockey Association)
Seconded –Pauline Alchin (Ipswich Hockey Association)
- Brisbane Hockey Association was asked not to present the under 11 boys their participation medals during the day of Coulter Shield. This process has caused confusion on to wether the winning team of the Coulter Shield receives medals.
Brisbane agreed to present their participations medals at a later date to their under 11 Brisbane teams. Brisbane also agreed to continue to purchase and present the winner of all divisions of the under 11 Coulter Shield with a shield.

Next meeting: Sunday, 29th October 2017 at 11am

Meeting closed – 11.57am
